Among Co-ops

The future of the Tobacco Growers Cooperative Association passed into the hands of its members last Saturday when organized tobacco from 130 counties met at their courthouses in the Carolinas and Virginia and nominated the electoral delegates whose final selection will be determined by the ballots mailed to 95,000 members of the marketing association.

The organized tobacco farmers took active control of their election throughout the three states covered by the marketing association, turning out in great crowds at many of the large markets. The meetings in South Carolina took on the nature of a celebration at several points, and resolutions of confidence in the tobacco association and its management were passed, according to reports reaching Raleigh headquarters where the selection of hundreds of electoral delegates by the members have been recorded.

Thousands of the Virginia growers attended the mass meetings in the county-seats of Campbell, Charlote, Lunenburg, Mecklenburg, Henry and Brunswick counties April 5, where they nominated their electoral delegates and learned of the new plan of credits by which members of the association will borrow on the 1924 crop of tobacco. Oliver J. Sands Executive Manager of the tobacco association, T. C. Watkins Jr., its manager of warehouses, Treasurer James H. Craig, and several of its directors, addressed these meetings.

Country Women Must Vote

If the counties are to have any voice in State matter, then country women must vote. City women are qualifying and voting more numerously than ever, which gives the city two votes where they only had one before. We know it is inconvenient to get to get to the polls in the country, but it is every woman's duty to vote in defense of her home whether it is in the country or the city. Leave off that day's housework, get someone, to stay with the children, or take them along—be sure to get to the polls and cast your vote in all elections. Every country woman must vote. —Southern Progress.

Col. Joseph E. Willard, one time Lieut. Governor of Virginia and later candidate for Governor passed away in New York last Saturday. He was a leading citizen of Virginia and had a multitude of friends who held him in very high esteem, and who mourn his death. The funeral was held in Washington last Monday.

At a meeting of the Board of Supervisors yesterday quite a number of people appeared before the Board from Stonewall district and petitioned their Supervisor, Mr. Anderson, to spend the gas tax amounting to about $2500 on either extending the Oakville road or the Vera road towards Bent Creek.

The Supervisor refused to grant the petition, saying the money would be spent on the road from Stonewall toward Concord. The petitioners allege that large sums of tax money has been spent in the upper end of the district recently and that this fund ought to be spent on one of the roads leading to Bent Creek.

Appomattox Association Conference

On Friday a Conference under the auspices of the Laymen's Missionary Movement, of the Appomattox Association was held at Liberty church. Through the untiring efforts of C. A. Hancock chairman of the Laymen's movement of the Association this Conference, was one of the best held in Virginia. The attendance was splendid, and from the time the Conference opened until it closed at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, not a moment was lost.

The Conference opened with a praise service conducted by the pastor, followed by a few remarks by the chairman. Rev W. J. Kendrick, Field Secretary of the Movement, then made a short address, at the close of which he introduced the speaker of the day, Dr. L. R. Scarbrough, of Fort Worth, Texas; Appomattox was highly honored in having so busy a man, and the great leader of the 75 Million Campaign on this occasion. For more than an hour this consecrated servant of God, held the great audience spell-bound as he recounted the triumphs of our people as the result of the Campaign, and called on the people to finish the task and put victory on the brow of the cause of the Lord Jesus Christ. This is the last year of the great Campaign and he said our people must not fail.

At the close of the morning session, the representation of the church repaired to the basement where the ladies had prepared a splendid dinner, in fact, the entertainment was so fine, that everybody as they left, went singing the praises of the splendid way in which they were entertained. The tables were decorated beautifully and the service fine. There were 174 representatives present, and with visitors and homefolk, the ladies served about 300 people. The rapidity with which this was done, and yet everyone had a plenty, bespeaks the splendid system that prevailed. At 2 o'clock the Conference reconvened. After a hymn and short prayer, a timely address in Stewardship, was given by Thos. H. Falwell, moderator of the Association. This was followed by a splendid talk on the Layman and his Association by Jno. B. Connelly, of Gladys. A short address by Mrs J. H. McCue, Supt. of the W. M. U., of the Association, closed the addresses for the day.

An open Conference was then held, presided over by Rev. Mr. Kendrick. A number of resolutions were discussed, the most important to be adopted, was by Dr. Burrell, of Farmville—"That from April 13th to 20th, be observed as a week of prayer, and on Sunday the 20th our people bring to church and pay the treasurer all they can on their 75 Million Campaign pledge", Liberty church will observe this resolution.

A roll call of the representatives from the churches was conducted by C. A. Hancock and of the 45 churches of the Association there were representatives from 38.

From the responses to the amount paid on the pledges, our churches are doing fine, and by the close of the year, Appomattox Association will win the victory. Appomattox enjoyed the Conference as we always do.

Annie Belt Martin

On the morning of April 1st, after several months of intense suffering Annie Belle Martin passed quietly away at the home of her father, near Oakville, aged 21 years. She was the youngest daughter of Tine H. and Martha Eliza Martin, the latter having preceded her to the grave fifteen years ago. She was indeed an exceptional character in many respects, apparently there was no need for her to try to be good, but goodness, kindness, and sympathy naturally radiated from her life without effort on her part. Altho weak in body for a long time before the end came she never grumbled, was never fractious, but with sweet patience and trusting hope she calmly waited for the summons to come up higher.

Besides her father she leaves the following brothers and sisters to mourn their loss: Prap Martin, of Lynchburg, Sidney, Otho, Raymond, and Fleming Martin, Mesdames C. D. Drinkard, R. J. Coleman, M. M. Drinkard, of Appomattox and Mrs. H. R. Moore, of Walkers Ford.

On Wednesday evening, at 2 o'clock the interment took place at the family burying ground near Trinity church, of which she was a consistent member.

The pastor, Rev. J. B. Lavender, conducted the funeral service in the presence of a large concourse of friends and relatives.

It was the request of the deceased that the following hymns be sung by just a few voices, "We'll Never Say Good bye In Heaven," and "In the Sweet By and Bye."

The pall bearers were cousins viz Messrs. Tony, Edgar, Ashby, Marshall and Graydon Martin and Kenneth Moore. Honorary pall bearers were J. W. C. Martin, S. R. Martin, B. H. W. Martin, J. C. Moore, and A. R. Harwood, and the flowers were carried by Oscar, Charlie, Blackwell and Leslie Martin, Misses Mary and Ruby Harris, Nellie Moore and Margie Martin.

Not now, but in the coming years, It may be in the better land, We'll read the meaning of our tears And there, sometime, we'll understand.

Card of Thanks

We desire to express our thanks to our friends and relatives for their many manifestations of kindness shown us during the illness and death of our daughter and sister, Belle. Also for the beautiful floral offerings and use of cars.

THOS H. MARTIN AND CHILDREN

W. D. Marks

Age 76, of Bent Creek, Appomattox Co., died April 6th, at his home after a lingering illness of two months. He had been twice married; his first wife was Miss Allie Turner daughter of Anderson and Jane Turner, of Appomattox. She died in 1900 leaving six children as follows: Haskins and J. B. of Appomattox, Thomas Holmes of Lynchburg, Elmo of Crewe, and Mrs. Lanegge of Texas. His second wife was Miss Ida Dixon daughter of W. H. Dixon of Buckingham county. She was a devoted wife and a lovable step-mother, and did all that loving hands could do for him, but God saw fit to call him to his reward and he left the assurance that he was ready for the summons. He had been a merchant at Bent Creek more than 20 years, and will be sadly missed in this community. He was S. S. Supt. and a deacon in Mapel Grove Baptist church where his funeral was conducted by J. R. Henson, Y. M. C. A. Sec of Glasstone. The choir sang "Nearer My God to Thee" and "Jesus Savior Pilot Me" at the church "And Some Day We Will Understand" at the grave. He was buried at Maple Grove cemetery a large concourse of friends, both white and colored, came out to pay the last full mead of respect.

The pall bearers were Harold and Frank Moorman, Jno. Harris, Thomas Farmer and French Harris. The floral offerings were carried by all these Marks, Mesdames, Otie Pedigo, Mary Marks, Jerry Watts, Clarence Horsley, J. R. Moses, T. R. and W. N. Turner; all relatives of the deceased.

He leaves a wife six children, one sister, Miss Mary Marks, of Madison Heights, and a brother, Sank Marks, of Chatham, Va., to mourn their loss. He has a host of friends. "God be with them till they meet again."

George W. Irby

This veteran of the Civil War passed to his reward at his home in Nottoway County Wednesday. He was the father of postmaster Irby and Miss Lizzie Irby, of Appomattox. He is also survived by three other children who reside in Nottoway. Had the deceased lived until next June he would have been 91 years of age. He surrendered at Appomattox and was a dashing member of Lee's Cavalry. He often visited here and his friends who enjoyed his society and confidence will regret to learn of his death.

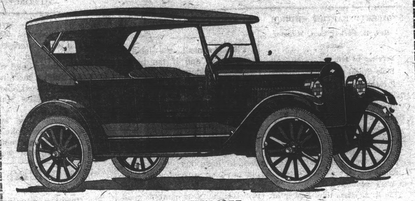
Health Insurance for the Whole Family



CHEVROLET

Without counting the daily utility of a Chevrolet for going back and forth to work, shopping or taking the children to school, etc., its value in saving doctor's bills, broadening your mental horizon and keeping the whole family physically fit, amounts to more than the cost of the car and its upkeep. It is more of an essential to the modern family than anything else but a home. Chevrolet meets the requirements of the modern family because it is economical to buy and maintain, because of its excellent appearance and riding comfort, because it can be depended upon, and because it is so easy to drive that any member of the family can use it.

ELIJAH AND THE STRUGGLE WITH BAAL

LESSON TEXT—I Kings 18:17-46.
GOLDEN TEXT—"No man can serve two masters . . . Ye cannot serve God and mammon."—Matt. 6:24.
PRIMARY TOPIC—God Hears Elijah's Prayer.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Elijah on Mt. Carmel.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Conflict between Jezebel and Elijah.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—How Elijah Won the Victory.

I. Elijah's Message to Ahab (vv. 17-18).

When Jezebel became the wife of King Ahab, she waged a savage warfare against God's prophets, killing all she could find, thus seeking to abolish the true religion and set up idolatry instead. Elijah suddenly appeared, announcing the suspension of moisture (I Kings 17:1) as a judgment upon the people for their idolatry. He sounded three striking notes in his message:

(1) "As the Lord God of Israel liveth"—He knew that he "represented the living God, therefore did not fear.

(2) "Before whom I stand"—Because Elijah stood before God, he could stand before Ahab.

(3) "There shall not be dew nor rain these years, but according to my word."—Drought was the punishment for idolatry (Deut. 11:16, 17).

II. A Challenge to Baal Worship (I Kings 18:17-46).

As soon as Elijah had delivered his message concerning the drought, he retired from the king's sight, while the suffering of the king's sins should be visited upon the land.

1. Elijah Shows Himself to Ahab (vv. 17, 18).

(1) Ahab's question (v. 17). His attitude in this question was no doubt to intimidate Elijah, to awe him into submission. The devil goes about as a roaring lion (I Pet. 5:8).

(2) Elijah's answer (v. 18). He denied the charge and boldly declared that the calamity which had befallen the nation was caused by the idolatry of Ahab and his family.

2. The Bold Challenge (vv. 19-24).

(1) The people assemble (vv. 19, 20). At the urgent request of Elijah the king convened the people.

(2) The ringing call to decision (vv. 21-24).

a. The question asked (v. 21). Many of the people had not wholly forsaken God. They attempted to worship both God and Baal.

b. The silence of the people (v. 21). This may have been because of fear of the consequences of confession, or because of the belief that to be religious was the only thing necessary, irrespective of the being worshiped.

c. The method of decision (vv. 22-24). Two sacrifices were to be provided, one to be offered to Baal, the other to God. The one who answered by fire was to be the God.

3. The Test Applied (vv. 25-39).

(1) Offering by the prophets of Baal (vv. 25-29). Elijah gave the prophets of Baal the first opportunity to prove to the people as to whether Baal was a real god.

(2) The offering by Elijah (vv. 30-39).

a. People invited near (v. 30). There are no secrets in God's worship.

b. The altar repaired (vv. 30-32). Elijah took twelve stones representing the united nation.

c. The offering on the altar (vv. 33-35). After the holocaust was in place he had four barrels of water three times emptied upon the sacrifice and the wood so as to fill the trench about the altar.

d. Elijah's prayer (vv. 36, 37). This was a model prayer.

(a) It was based upon covenants (v. 36). All real prayer rests upon covenant relationships.

(b) Its object was God's exaltation (v. 36). Elijah was jealous for God's glory, but the only thing that he asked for himself was to be known as God's servant.

(c) It was for the salvation of the people (v. 37). His heart yearned after Israel. He wanted them to come to know God.

d. The result (vv. 38, 39).

(a) The fire of the Lord fell and consumed, not only the sacrifice, but the wood, stones and dust, even licking up the water in the trenches.

(b) The people fell on their faces and confessed that the Lord was the God.

4. The Execution of Baal's Prophets (v. 40). Israel's government was a theocracy. God was their King. Idolatry was treason against the King.

Loyalty to Christ

No Christian ought to be afraid to take his religion out where there is none. All the same it is easier to be loyal to Jesus when we keep with Jesus' other friends.—Christian Cynosure.
